YOUNG RESEARCHERS SUMMIT

Stern School of Business, New York University

August 10-12, 2023

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The Summit will bring together approximately 10-15 excellent Ph.D. students and early post-doc researchers (cut-off is one year after graduation) who engage in research in the business and human rights field. The objective is for participants to present their research project in an interdisciplinary, collaborative workshop setting. Scholars from all disciplines are invited to apply including ethics, law, business, and global affairs. Submissions from non-law disciplines are particularly welcome.

The focus is on paper development. Therefore, papers should outline research-in-progress, be single-authored, and must not be under consideration for publication at the time of presentation. We encourage submissions from all parts of the world and we strive for gender balance in our selection.

Lodging and meals will be provided for the duration of the Summit. Some travel stipends will be offered for participants traveling from outside of the United States and on an as needed basis. Full papers will be due on June 15th, 2023 and will be distributed to all participants for review before the workshop. Each participant is expected to formally comment on one other paper.
